

Typical Contents of Nonprofit Board Manual

Each member of the Board should have a Board Manual, or Handbook, that contains the types of contents listed below. Board members should be oriented to the contents, for example, during a Board orientation session. Contents of Board manuals may differ somewhat among different organizations, depending on the needs and nature of the organization, including the Board model preferred by the nonprofit. The contents of the Board Manual and activities to update it might be the responsibility of a Board Development Committee.
